"...their spirit of exultation is irresistible.
Nothing could be more catching than their air of utter happiness,
And their joy becomes the most believable kind of reverence."

LANGSTON HUGHES'
Black Nativity

THE GOSPEL MUSICAL

BLACK NATIVITY is the internationally acclaimed gospel stage musical by Langston Hughes. Greeted with ecstatic reviews when it opened in New York in 1961, BLACK NATIVITY has become a classic for the Christmas season, playing to audiences the world over. BLACK NATIVITY is rich in rhythm and melody, creativity, joy and religious fervor. Although it is dedicated to the gospel, the show goes beyond being a religious experience. It swells with heartiness as it moves ahead in a joyful cavalcade of song and dance.

BLACK NATIVITY is a celebration. Featuring a talented troupe of singers and dancers – including bringing to the stage REV. LOUISE WILLIAMS as Narrator – reading the words of the legendary LANGSTON HUGHES BLACK NATIVITY is a stage experience not to be missed. BLACK NATIVITY has played to standing-room audiences around the world to critical acclaim with such words as “Exciting! ... Exultation! ... Bravos! ... Electric!”
